Krittika, pada 1

Krittika is the nakshatra of Agni, the sacred fire, and is ruled by the Sun. Its symbol is a flame — fire that purifies and a mind that cuts through confusion. Krittika children are traditionally described as honest, brave and quick to protect the people they love.

The first pada falls in the Dhanu navamsa, ruled by Jupiter. Tradition says this softens Krittika's fire with warmth, generosity and a love of learning: a child who asks "why", stands up for what is fair and enjoys being trusted with small responsibilities early.

Moon in Mesh

Mesh is a fire sign ruled by Mars, linked with energy, courage and a pioneering spirit. Mesh children like to start things, move quickly and lead from the front.

A calm routine and patient guidance help that energy grow into steady confidence. Names with a gentle, grounded meaning are often chosen to balance a fiery Moon — you will see several in your list.

Your birth time was well inside pada 1, so the naming sound अ is clear. If the time you gave is off by more than about an hour, write to us and we'll re-check it free.

His numbers and Lo Shu grid

Numerology reads the date of birth. These two numbers guide which name numbers sit comfortably with him.

MOOLANK · BIRTH NUMBER

3

From the day of birth, 30 → 3 + 0. Ruled by Jupiter (Guru): wisdom, expression, optimism and a natural teacher's warmth.

BHAGYANK · DESTINY NUMBER

4

From the full date, 3+0+0+9+2+0+2+6 = 22 → 4. Ruled by Rahu: practical, organised, builds things step by step. 22 is often called a "master number".

Lo Shu grid

4 4	9 9	2 22
3 33	5 —	7 —
8 —	1 —	6 6

Digits of 30-09-2026 (zeros skipped) plus Moolank 3 and Bhagyank 4, placed in the traditional Lo Shu positions.

Present	2 × 2, 3 × 2, 4, 6, 9
Missing	1, 5, 7, 8
Complete plane	4-9-2 · Mental plane

Mental plane complete (4-9-2). Traditionally read as a good memory, sharp thinking and a mind that likes to plan.

2 twice — sensitive and intuitive, picks up on moods at home. 3 twice — imaginative, expressive, loves stories.

Missing numbers are not defects — almost every grid has gaps. Traditionally, missing 1 relates to expressing oneself, 5 to balance and steadiness, 7 to patience, and 8 to managing resources. Many families choose a name whose number fills a gap: for him, name numbers 1, 5 or 7 do this. Names marked fills grid in the next pages are those.

Love a name, but not its number?

Many families adjust the English spelling so the name number sits well with the child's numbers. Pronunciation and the Hindi spelling stay exactly the same; only the English letters change.

NAME	SPELLING	CHALDEAN	WITH HIS NUMBERS (3 AND 4)
Aarav family	Aarav	11 → 2	neutral
	Arav	10 → 1	friendly to both
	Aaraav	12 → 3	friendly to one
Aayush family	Aayush	17 → 8	challenging
	Ayush	16 → 7	neutral
	Aayushh	22 → 4	neutral
Advait family	Advait	17 → 8	challenging
	Adwait	17 → 8	challenging
	Advaitth	22 → 4	neutral

How to read this. "Friendly to both" means the new number is friendly to his Moolank 3 and Bhagyank 4. Aarav becomes Arav (1) — friendly to both and it also fills the missing 1 in his grid. Aayush (8) is usually avoided with these numbers; Ayush (7) is neutral and fills the missing 7.

Good times for the naming ceremony

Naamkaran is traditionally held on the 11th or 12th day after birth. If that day has passed, families choose an auspicious day soon after. These are the strongest windows in the next 30 days, calculated for Mumbai.
